DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Claim 14 recites: "the attaching portion; and the holding portion; wherein the holding portion is for replaceably holding the hammer; wherein the attaching portion is for replaceably attaching to the leg user; wherein the attaching portion comprises the pair of extension members; wherein the extension member of the pair of extension members of the attaching portion having the lowermost end, the uppermost end and the intermediate portion; wherein the attaching portion has the upper portion wherein each extension member of the pair of extension members of the attaching portion has a lower portion; wherein the extension member of the pair of extension members of the attaching portion has the upper loop; wherein the extension member of the pair of extension members of the attaching portion has the lower loop; wherein the upper loop of each extension member of the pair of extension members of the attaching portion is disposed at the uppermost end of the associated extension member of the pair of extension members of the attaching portion; wherein the upper of each extension member of the pair of extension members of the attaching portion extends forwardly from the uppermost end of the associated extension member of the pair of extension members of the attaching portion, away from the leg of the user for comfort; wherein the upper loop of each extension member of the pair of extension member of the attaching portion is to receive the upper strap; and wherein the upper strap is to strap around the leg of the user."

The prior art of record Pursley (U.S. Patent Number 5605263) and Pursley et al., (U.S. Patent Number 65557739) does not disclose the attaching portion in combination with the other recited features; wherein the attaching members comprises a pair of extension members; wherein the attaching portion has the upper portion wherein each extension member of the pair of extension members of the attaching portion has a lower portion; wherein the extension member of the pair of extension members of the attaching portion has the upper loop; wherein the extension member of the pair of extension members of the attaching portion has the lower loop; wherein the upper loop of each extension member of each extension member of the pair of extension members of the attaching portion is disposed at the uppermost end of the associated extension member of the pair of extension members of the attaching portion; wherein the upper of each extension member of the pair of extension members of the attaching portion extends forwardly from the uppermost end of the associated extension member of the pair of extension members of the attaching portion, away from the leg of the user for comfort; wherein the upper loop of each extension member of the pair of extension member of the attaching portion is to receive the upper strap; and wherein the upper strap is to strap around the leg of the user.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
